not provide a student a lunch and will immediately inform the Building Principal (or designee), who will contact the student's parent to arrange for lunch or money for lunch to be brought from home to school for the student.

A parent's refusal to provide lunch for their child or money to purchase lunch may be indicative of more serious issues in the family or household. In these situations, the Building Principal (or designee) will consult with and seek necessary services from both the County Board of Social Services and the Department of Children and Families, Division of Child Protection and Permanency, as appropriate.

When a parent's routine failure to provide lunch is reasonably suspected to be indicative of child abuse or neglect, the Building Principal (or designee) will immediately report such suspicion to the Department of Children and Families, Division of Child Protection and Permanency as required in N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10. Such reporting will not be delayed to accommodate a parent's meeting with the Building Principal (or designee).]

However, there may be circumstances when payment is not made and a student's school lunch bill is in arrears. The school district will manage a student's lunch bill that is in arrears in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:33-21 and this Policy.

In the event a student's school lunch bill is in arrears in excess of $---, the student will continue to receive lunch and their account will be charged accordingly. ¶The Building Principal (or designee) will contact the student's parent to provide notice of the amount in arrears and will provide the parent a period of ten (10) school days to pay the full amount due. If the student's parent does not make full payment to the Building Principal (or designee) by the end of the ten (10) school days, the Building Principal (or designee) will again contact the student's parent to provide a second notice that their child's lunch bill is in arrears. If payment in full is not made within one (1) week from the date of the second notice, the student will not be served school lunch, as applicable, without payment for that day's lunch beginning the eighth (8) calendar day from the date of the second notice.

A parent who has received a second notice their child's lunch bill is in arrears and who has not made payment in full within one (1) week from the date of the second notice will be requested to meet with the Building Principal (or designee) to discuss and resolve the matter.
